

GIRLS Camp and Personal Progress Goals

posted by: Ann Heiner/jstrong84604

Any level of camp can find one or more that fits their age requirements
Personal Progress Goal	Possible Camp Certification Requirements
Divine Nature Project: Use an art or handicraft to make something for your future home (10 hours)	Craft Project(s)
Individual Worth #2: Make a list of your hopes and dreams for your future	The stake/ward can do this as one of your rotations during a stake/ward event.
Individual Worth #3: Build others and make them feel of worth. Acknowledge them in writing or verbally	Notes to other campers. May use a camp mailbox.
Individual Worth #7: Ask someone to write down your positive qualities.	Letter from home, or a letter from a leader. Great for solo time or quiet reflection time.
Knowledge #2: Learn a new skill that will help you care for your family (cooking)	Cooking and planning menus
Knowledge #3: Memorize two hymns, learn how to conduct them, conduct them for a group	Flag ceremonies, devotionals, singing around the camp fire
Knowledge #4: Select a gospel principle, prepare and present a five minute talk	Devotionals
Knowledge #6: Memorize the 13 th article of faith, attend a cultural event	Stake scripture. You could finish the remainder of the goal as a pre or post camp activity.
Knowledge #7: Develop and practice the skill of story telling. Tell two stories	Have a ward story telling festival around the camp fire. Read bedtime stories to a group before going to bed.
Choice & Accountability #2: Read For the Strength of Youth. Choose a standard to improve.	Devotional or special activity. Some of the standards match right up with the Be's.
Good Works #1: Learn about and perform service	Throughout entire week
Integrity #1: Review the standards for the Strength of Youth. Write a plan to stay morally clean.	Devotional or special activity. Some of the standards match right up with the Be's.